Rome Cable, Alcoa Merger Awaits Stockholders' Nod

Rome Cable Corporation and Aluminum Company of America today announced plans to affiliate.

Frank L. Magee, president of Alcoa, and A. D. Ross Fraser, president of Rome Cable, which has a Torrance plant, announced that agreement has been reached on a plan by which Alcoa will acquire all of the properties of Rome Cable for 355,226 shares of Alcoa common stock. This will permit distribution to Rome shareholders of three shares of Alcoa common stock for each five shares of Rome common stock. The agreement is contingent upon approval of Rome shareholders, who will meet on March 25. If approved, it will take effect immediately.

Alcoa and Rome plan to combine their electrical conductor, conduit and accessory activities in a new company to be called Rome Cable Company. The present members of Rome's management will continue in their present capacities in the newly formed company.

Oil Workers Union Takes Strike Vote, Eyes Offer

Armed with a strike vote, members of Local 1-519, Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union, are expected to vote early next month on a five per cent pay hike offered by General Petroleum.

Richard T. Baurmann, secretary-treasurer of the Torrance union, said that a "heavy majority" voted to strike, if necessary, at an election held at the refinery this week.

The union official said that the local intends to enter into collective bargaining sessions with the company on a pay hike as well as other issues such as an improved medical plan.

In the meantime, General Petroleum announced Thursday that all unorganized employees were given a 5 per cent pay boost, effective that day, and that it has offered a similar pay hike to organized employees.

Strike votes have been taken by the union at all major companies including Shell, Union, Texaco, Richfield and Tidewater Oil Companies.
